Murder Done At Flemington.

White Man Shot and Killed by a Negro in a Bar-room Brawl.

In a drunken row about 1 o'clock Sunday moral g in a speakeasy near Flemington, Peter Crynes, white, was shot and instantly killed and Paul Mc-Phalin, a negro, was also shot through the stomach. He was very seriously wounded, and his injuries may prove fatal. Fry Mayfield, another negro, was also mixed up in the fight. Mc-Phalin was taken to the jail at Grafton Sunday evening.
All of the parties to the trouble were miners employed in the mines of the Flemington Coal Company. All had been drinking at the speakeasy all Saturday night and were in a quarrelsome mood, when Crynes started out after a revolver. He had been gone but a short time when he returned and was met in the doorway of the place by the negroes and both sides at once opened fire. Quite a crowd was present in the saloon at the time, and while several persons had narrow escapes from flying bullets, no one else was hurt.

Soon after the murder was committed, the negro made his escape and went to Bridgeport, a few miles this side of Flemington. The authorities surmised that he would attempt to escape to another state, and the description of the fugitive was telegraphed along the B. & O. When the negro boarded the train he was at once recognized by Capt. Pickett, who telegraphed to Chief Landsittle at Parkersburg. When the accommodation arrived at Parkersburg at 11:10 the negro stepped from the train, and was at once taken into custody. He protested that he had done nothing to be arrested for, but nevertheless, he was locked up. When taken to police headquarters he admitted that he had been at do field work until April 1, when the Flemington but denied that he had been in any saloon row. He stated that he had been employed as a coal miner but had tired of the place and was on his way to his old home in Lexington, Kentucky. His name, he said, was John Brown, but letters found on his person were addressed to Fry Mayfield, and it was found later that this was his name. When searched a big Colts revolver was found in his pocket. In another pocket Hay at from $14 to $16 per ton. Also was found a pair of dice and a rabbit's

The negro appears to be about thir ty-five years of age, and is a desperate looking character. He is very dark and his face is badly pox-marked.

As soon as the arrest was made the authorities at Flemington were com municated with, and in answer they stated that the negro was the one wanted.

According to the story of the officers at Flemington and Grafton Mayfield is the one who killed Crynes, and he will have to answer to the charge of murder. The story as they tell it is ous. He was carried into Mr. Blake's as follows: Mayfield, Crynes and Mc-residence and given medical treat-Phalin were in a speakeasy where they had been drinking. They were play ing cards and all were in a quarrelsome mood. Crynes accused Mc-Phalin of cheating and at the same time pulled a gun and pointed it at the negro. The negro instantly whip ped out a revolver but before he could shoot, Crynes shot him in the stomach. Mayfield then took part in the gun tion : one mile to paved street and play to defend his friend and shot car line: city in view. Population Crynes, killing him almost instantly. Several shots was injured except Crynes and Mc-Phalin.

leaves a family in that country. He was 45 years of age.

B. & O. Officials Pleased With The Plans

Of The Clarksburg Industrial Company and will Likely build Switch on Snake Farm.

W. W. Wood, of Baltimore Indus trial agent for the B. & O. Railroad Company, and Frederick Fowler, of Parkersburg, division freight agent, were here Saturday on business that promises great things for Clarks burg. They conferred with Anthony Bowen of the Clarksburg Industrial Company in reference to the construction of a switch from the B. & O. railroad to the IndustrialCompany's proposed free factory sites on the old "Snake" farm east of the city. This switch if built will be one mile long. They went ver the ground and personally inspected the route.

Both gentlemen expressed themselves as very favorably impressed. Mr. Wood was highly complimentary. in his remarks and said the movement by the Industrial Company was the finest and best thing on in West Virginia. They will doubtless recommend the construction of the switch. In that event, that section will be included in the B. & O. yards, so as to obtain all the advantages such an arrangement would give. The railroad company is very much interested in the movement and will doubtless do its full share in the materialization of the Industrial Company's plans to make Clarksburg a big manufacturing center.

familiar objects in nearly every household. They are the weapons that have been used for generations to fight old Rheumatism, and are about as effective in the battle with this giant disease as the blunderbuss of our forefathers would be in modern warfare.

Rheumatism is caused by an acid, sour condition of the blood. It is filled with acrid, irritating matter that settles in the joints, museles and nerves, and liniments and oils nor nething elseapplied externally can dislodge these gritty, corroding particles. They were deposited there by the blood and can be reached only through the blood. Rubbing with liniments sometimes relieve temporarily the aches and pains, but these are only symptoms which are liable to return with every change of the weather; the real disease lies deeper, the blood and system are infected. Rheumatism cannot be radically and permanually cured until the blood has been purified, and no remedy does this so theroughly and promptly as S. S. S. It neutralizes the acids and sends a stream of rich, strong blood to the affected parts, which dissolves and was in so potash or other mineral, but is a perfect vegetable blood purifier and most exhilarating tonic. Our physicians will advise, without charge, all who write about their case, and we will send free our special book on Rheumatism and its treatment.
